

Great Britain And Red China Discuss Peace

Peiping Terms Not Acceptable To US

PARIS, (NEA)—Red China and Great Britain have been exploring the possibility of a Korean cease-fire for several weeks, with the knowledge of the United States.

Indications are that the Red Chinese are still making demands unacceptable to the U. S.

This information, disclosed to me by a Western diplomat familiar with Far Eastern developments, lends new significance to the cease-fire proposal put forth in New York Saturday by Russia's UN representative, Jacob A. Malik.

Breathing Spell Sought

With the crisis in the Middle East, especially the Anglo-Iranian oil dispute, rapidly nearing a climax, Russia might be angling for a breathing spell in the Far East and West. Moscow was certainly taken by surprise when the Western deputy foreign ministers decided to end the futile Four Power conference in Paris. Pending the outcome of the Middle Eastern crisis, the Russians probably would have liked the conference to go on while longer.

It was emphasized that the con-

Bride Abducted In Arlington, Va.

Young Wife Attacked By Two Gunmen

ARLINGTON, Va.—(AP)—A 19-year-old bride of ten days was abducted from her bed early today by two gunmen who, she told police, took her to a scenic spot 10 miles away and attacked her.

Mrs. James Hotchkiss said that after the alleged attack she was driven back near her ground-floor apartment and dumped out of the car. Records indicate she is the daughter of a socially-prominent Winnetka, Ill., family.

She was found by Lieutenant W. Lynn Smith of the Arlington police, who had her rushed by ambulance to Arlington hospital.

There she told doctors each man had attacked her twice.

Less than an hour later police picked up John Robert Polk, 19, of Arlington, and charged him with kidnapping.

Shortly afterwards, William Robert Payne, 19, of Bethesda, Md., was picked up by police and also charged with kidnapping.

Payne, police said, had left Polk and Polk's car after the alleged attacks. They said he was frightened, and decided to hitchhike back to town.

Police said Polk told them he had planned to kill Mrs. Hotchkiss, but that his gun, a .22 rifle, jammed when he tried to pull the trigger.

Escanaba Council Gets Report On Ettenhofer Death

Meeting in special session today, Escanaba city council heard a report by City Manager A. V. Aronson on the death of Police Chief M. F. Ettenhofer, who was killed with three others when a city police patrol car crashed almost head-on into another auto Sunday morning east of Mani-stigue. Chief Ettenhofer, driver of the Escanaba police car, apparently was the one who turned out in passing another car and collided with an oncoming automobile, the city manager reported.

Killed besides Chief Ettenhofer were his wife; Michael Allen Leonard, 2, son of Glenford S. Leonard, Escanaba public safety director; and Donald Stone, 51, Pontiac fire station captain, driver of the other car.

Pravda Supports Truce In Korea

Official Soviet Paper Calls For Peace

MOSCOW—(AP)—Pravda printed an editorial today urging peaceful settlement of the Korean conflict.

The official Communist party newspaper, in the first Soviet press comment on the matter, gave its full approval to the proposal of Jacob A. Malik, Soviet United Nations delegate, who proposed in a New York radio address Saturday that the belligerents in Korea discuss a cease-fire.

McFarland called Senate Democratic members togethers in a party caucus for their views.

Largely because 26 senators have been tied up in an investigation of President Truman's dismissal of Gen. Douglas MacArthur since May 3, the Senate has been moving slowly on legislation.

The Senate finance committee starts hearings tomorrow on the House-approved $7,200,000 tax bill and Chairman George (D-Ga) said he wants to know what the working schedule is going to be.

George said he will keep the committee working on the bill during July and the part of August he thinks will elapse before the Senate acts on all the regular money bills for government departments. But he said he thinks it would be all right for Congress to take a vacation at that time and complete action on taxes later in the year.

McFarland said he is pushing for a three-month recess because he believes "it's part of our job to go home and find out what the people are thinking."

Pravda said Malik's proposals showed how the Soviet people felt about Korea.

"The Soviet people are convinced that there exist all possibilities for a peaceful settlement of the Korean question," it said.

Britain Sends Cruiser To Iranian Oil Port; 27 Tankers Detained

LONDON—(AP)—Britain today ordered the cruiser Mauritius to "proceed forthwith" to the vicinity of Abadan, the Iranian oil port where 27 tankers are caught in a dispute over payments for oil.

British Foreign Secretary Herbert Morrison, announcing the action in the House of Commons, said the British-owned Anglo-Iranian Oil company has ordered all its tankers to leave Abadan immediately.

The company issued its order "with the full agreement of his majesty's government," Morrison announced. He described the situation as very serious.

Departure of all tankers presumably would mean the shutdown of the Abadan refinery, the world's largest. It is filling storage tanks because of the shipping tieup. There is enough storage capacity to keep the refinery going about a week.

The tankers are loaded with oil but have been refused clearance by Iranian authorities because the captains refused to sign receipts acknowledging payment was due Iran's new national oil company.

The captains with oil aboard were told to pump it off if necessary to obtain clearance, Morrison said.

Potato Order Vote Planned

Growers To Ballot
July 9 To 13

The U. S. Department of Agriculture announced today that North Central potato growers will vote July 9 to 13, 1951, on whether Federal Marketing Order No. 60 shall be continued or terminated.

Every potato grower in North Central production area—Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, North Dakota, and portions of Iowa and Indiana who produced potatoes for market during the 1950 crop year is eligible to vote in the referendum.

Voters will cast their ballots by mail only. A ballot and voting instructions will be sent to each grower in the area. Any grower not receiving a ballot by mail may obtain one at his county PMA office.

Opinion Is Sought

The North Central Potato Committee which administers amended Order No. 60 has been unable to reach a decision in accordance with the requirements of the order concerning any future action under this program.

The Department has called this referendum in an effort to get a true picture of the potato growers' attitude toward the marketing order. Under existing legislation the Secretary is required to terminate the order if such action is favored by a majority of North Central potato growers who produced more than 50 percent of the 1950 North Central potato crop.

The North Central Marketing Order No. 60 was issued January 17, 1942, and amended October 13, 1950. The order sets up the North Central Potato Committee which consists of 18 members—14 growers and 4 handlers—nominated by their respective groups.

Regulations At Stake

The committee initiates grades, size, and quality regulations (if any) each year through its recommendations to the Secretary. The committee recommended grade and size regulations for the 1947, 1948, 1949 and 1950 crops.

Whether there will be any regulation for the 1951 crop, if the referendum favors continuation of the basic order, depends upon what recommendations the new committee—which takes office in July—may make.

Ten Federal potato marketing orders are now in effect. Each has an administrative committee similar to the North Central Potato Committee. Seven orders, as a result of their committee recommendations, are expected to operate during the 1951 season.

Red Cross Fund Mixup Cleared

Detroit Torch Drive Causes Dispute

DETROIT — (AP) — The long-smoldering dispute between the American Red Cross and its Detroit chapter over participating in joint fund raising drives may get settled this week.

The Detroit chapter, once threatened with expulsion by national headquarters for taking part in Detroit's torch drive, has prepared a resolution which it hopes will clear up the matter.

The resolution is to be presented at the ARC's national convention in New York on Wednesday, by Alvan Macauley, Jr., chairman of the Detroit chapter. Its wording was not indicated by officials here.

However, it is expected the proposal would apply to other cities which would like to join in united fund raising campaigns similar to Detroit's torch drive.

The ARC board of governors earlier this week berated Detroit and two other chapters for failing to maintain sufficient direct contract with contributors.

The board also criticized Detroit for delegating a major share of its fund raising responsibilities to the Torch drive. Red Cross policy, for the last several decades, has been against such participation.

World Economics

Successful Capitalism Weapon Against Stalin

Strengthening the capitalistic or free enterprise system as proof of its economic success is one of the fundamental answers to a world threatened by the imperialistic communism of Russia, D. B. Varner, Michigan State College agricultural economics department, last night told a Delta county audience at Escanaba junior high school.

About 100 persons attended the meeting and joined in the discussion of "isms"—capitalism, socialism and communism.

Purpose of the meeting, arranged by Michigan State College extension service, was to assist the people in understanding the differences and to recognize the similarities in economic systems among countries of the world.

Peace or Victory

The United States and free enterprise, Russia and the controlled socialism called communism stand at direct opposites in the world today, Varner pointed out.

"Our goal must be: 1—A real peace, or 2—A real victory," Varner said in warning that Soviet imperialism has only conquest in mind. Peace "feelers" from Russia must be examined closely without relenting our military and economic war upon communist forces, he added.

Strength and Weakness

Jugoslavia could be "the next Korea," and oil rich Iran and Iraq are on the Russian time table of aggression, Varner said.

Two Cars Collide In Bark River

Cars driven by Richard Good of Harris and Mrs. Delia McDermott of Bark River collided at a street intersection on Road 408 in Bark River at 5:40 p.m. yesterday.

Good was heading east on Road 408 and Mrs. McDermott was coming into the road from a side road known locally as "Bergman's alley". Trees and underbrush along the side of the road hinder vision for the motorist at this point. The highway department will clear away the underbrush immediately.

Mrs. McDermott was struck as she edged into the traffic lane. She had six stitches taken in a head wound.

Both cars were damaged.

At Ironwood a class of 22 was inducted, followed by a parade in a downpour of rain. DeHooghe presided at the convention 40 and 8 business meeting.

Resorts Checked By Health Dept.

Sanitary Engineers Survey Peninsula

Health department engineers and sanitarians are now checking the sanitation of the numerous vacation spots in Michigan's Upper Peninsula.

Among these vacation spots are resort hotels, cabin camps, children's camps, summer trailer parks, amusement and picnic areas, beaches, and roadside rest stops.

These points for recreation present special problems in sewage and waste disposal and in maintaining safe supplies of water, milk, and other food which may not be covered in the year-round sanitation program. Therefore additional inspections are being made now to protect the health of the thousands of people from lower Michigan and other states who vacation in the Northern Peninsula.

In the 13 counties which are served by a county or district health department, resort inspections are made by ten full-time local sanitarians or engineers. To assist in other areas which still have inadequate health department protection, the Michigan Department of Health employs specially trained men each summer.

This year the group will be assisted by the Powers-Spalding high school band.

The choral group draws its membership from Hyde, Wilson, Hermans and the Powers-Spalding area.

Several Victor Herbert favorites will be heard in this year's concert, as well as several Fred Waring novelty arrangements.

The chorus is under the direction of Mrs. Harland Hanson and the accompanist is Mrs. Helen Nicholson.

Soviet Encroachment Expansion Must Be Stopped, Says Acheson

WASHINGTON — (AP)—Secretary of State Acheson, urging Congress to vote a new $8,500,000,000 foreign aid program, said today Soviet expansion by "encroachment" has "got to be stopped."

Acheson said enlightened self-interest "requires us to make sure that we have strong and reliable friends and allies." The huge foreign economic and arms aid program, he said, is essential to the security of the United States.

Threat To Free World

As Acheson spoke, before the House Foreign Affairs committee, speculation mounted in Congress over the possibility that a cease-fire in Korea might be in the making. Cease-fire talk followed suggestions made in a radio address Saturday by Jacob A. Malik, chief Soviet delegate to the United Nations.

But Acheson's prepared statement made no direct reference to Malik's proposal that fighting cease and hostile forces withdraw from the 38th parallel.

The secretary assailed Moscow policies as a threat to the free world. He said Moscow wants to see the United States try to "go it alone." The big aid bill, he said, by strengthening America's

Truman Speech Branded Untrue

Taft Says US Lacks Bipartisan Policy

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Senator Taft (R-Oio) declared today it is "absolutely untrue" to say, as President Truman did yesterday, that this country has a bipartisan foreign policy.

Taft, who heads the Senate Republican policy committee, dismissed without a direct reply Mr. Truman's charges in a speech at Tullahoma, Tenn., yesterday that the Republicans are "playing right into the hands of the Russians" by conducting a "smear campaign" against the administration.

But the Ohioan—a possible GOP presidential candidate—disputed Mr. Truman's assertion that "we had a bipartisan foreign policy in this country since Pearl Harbor" and "I would like to keep it that way."

The president went on to say that some Republicans—and he obviously was striking at Taft—"want us to play Russian roulette with the foreign policy of the United States—and with all of the enablers of the pistol loaded."

Taft told reporters it is an "absolute untruth" that any bipartisan policy exists now.

"The 1948 election so went to the president's head that he has consulted no Republican leaders since that date," the Ohio Senator declared.

Senator Vandenberg pointed out that the Republicans were never consulted on the disastrous foreign policy in China, which he opposed." His reference was to the late Senator Arthur Vandenberg (R-Mich.).

Dixon Explains Changes In Law

Employment Service Now Has New Name

Many changes recently were made in the Michigan Unemployment compensation law according to Whitney R. Dixon, local MESC office manager. The name of the agency which was formerly Michigan Unemployment Compensation commission, has now been changed by an act of the legislature to the Michigan Employment Security commission.

The arms aid fund faces attack from administration foes. It includes $6,300,000,000 for military aid and $2,200,000,000 for economic aid. For the first time it pulls together economic, technical and military assistance into one bill. Acheson said the points interlock closely.

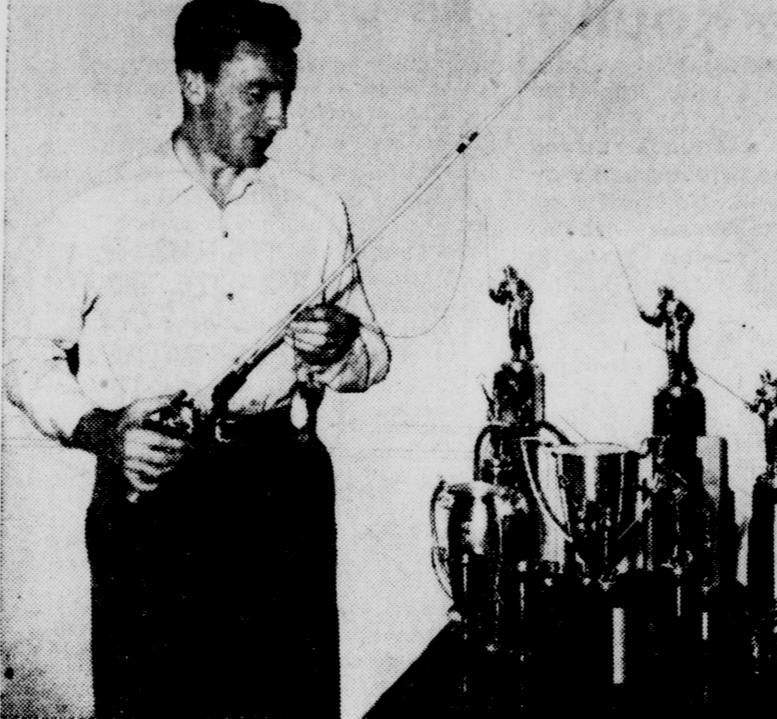

Other Law Changes

Other changes in the law according to Dixon, are as follows:

The time for appeals from any decision of the commission, has been changed to 15 days from the mailing date of the determination. The amount of benefits payable to qualified claimants, has been increased from $24.00 to the basic amount of $27.00 and dependency allowances for children can add up to $8.00 more per week when there are four or more children. This makes a possible maximum benefit with dependent children of $35.00 which is an increase of $3.00 over the former high.

An explanation of the new rate, Dixon advised that if a claimant has earned $51.01 or more a week, he is eligible for a maximum amount and would be eligible for the full 20 weeks if he has earned at least $51.01 for 30 weeks in his base period. A claimant's base period has been established as the 52-week period ending with the last Saturday midnight, prior to the week of filing and establishing an eligible claim. The new rate will first take effect for the week ending July 7 and first payment under the new rate will be during the second week of July when a claimant reports his status, earnings, etc. for the previous week ending July 7.

BEN HARDESTY TO PERFORM HERE—The U. S. professional bait and fly casting champion, Ben Hardesty of the Shakespeare company will give exhibitions of his skill during the outdoor writers convention at the Escanaba municipal dock Saturday and Sunday afternoons. The public is invited to attend the free exhibition. Hardesty was six years old when he began accompanying his father on fishing trips. He won several national junior prizes and when he was 16 he became the youngest caster to make a perfect score. In 1948, Hardesty turned professional and won the national professional all accuracy bait and fly casting title. He is 23 years old.

to the Michigan Employment Security Commission act is that provision is now made for freezing a man's wages as of the date of enlistment in the Armed Forces so that when they come back they will be entitled to unemployment compensation based on earnings earned before entering the service. There are also several other amendments, according to Dixon, that deal with liability of employers, and which are not of too much interest to workers. However, there is one amendment regarding the eligibility requirement of the law which states that a man must be seeking work. This has been modified so that when an employer gives the Michigan Employment Security commission a statement to the effect that a man's unemployment is of a temporary nature of less than 30 days, it will not be necessary for the claimant to establish that he is seeking work during that short lay off.

Further information regarding recent changes in the law can be obtained from the local office of the Michigan Employment Security commission, formerly Michigan Unemployment Compensation commission which is located at 1323 Ludington street, in Escanaba.

Upper Peninsula State Fair Will Be Region's Big Event In August

NOW is the time for dairy farmers, vegetable growers, homemakers and other exhibitors to make plans for displaying their exhibits at the Upper Peninsula State Fair on Aug. 14 to 19.

For years, the state fair has been the Upper Peninsula's major special event in August. It attracts sightseers from many miles, and each year it mirrors the agricultural, industrial and educational progress of the region.

This year, the Upper Peninsula State Fair will be without the valuable services of the late Harold P. Lindsay, who contributed much toward putting the institution on a firm financial basis and developing it into one of the best fairs in the state.

Fortunately, Lindsay, as secretary-manager for several years, established a sound policy and program of events that will serve as a good pattern for Secretary John MacInnis and the board of managers to follow.

Ever since its establishment more than a score years ago, the Upper Peninsula State Fair has proved itself a powerful incentive to farmers of the region. It has been particularly helpful in encouraging dairy farmers to improve their herds. Other phases of Upper Peninsula agriculture also have been enhanced by this education-

Mike Ettenhofer Was Good Public Servant

ESCANABA has lost a faithful and highly respected public servant in Chief of Police Michael F. Ettenhofer, who was one of four killed in a tragic automobile accident occurring near Engadine on Sunday.

Mike, as he was known to his many friends, entered the police department in 1920. Upon the death of John J. Tolman he was promoted to head the department.

Serving as a police officer in a community like Escanaba is no easy task. It calls for the performance of many disagreeable duties, irregular hours of work, and much unmerited public criticism.

Mike Ettenhofer realized early in his police career that his job was no bed of roses. He resolved, however, to perform his duty as he saw it. In doing so he won the respect of the community and the loyalty of his fellow officers.

The sudden deaths of Mr. and Mrs. Ettenhofer and the small son of Glen Leonard, director of public safety, came as shocking news to the people of Escanaba. We are reminded again that dangers are ever present on our crowded highways.

Criminals Do Not Enjoy Publicity

ONE of the most effective deterrents to wrongdoing is the publication of crime news.

Many people do not like to read crime news, and they frequently criticize newspapers for overplaying it. But crime news is very necessary. The fear of publicity likely keeps many from wrongdoing.

Rudolph Halley, former chief counsel of the Senate crime investigating committee, recently declared, in a talk before the Wisconsin Bar association, that publicity is the American people's greatest weapon against organized crime. Halley told the lawyers that television of Senate hearings was the "best means of bringing wrongs to wide public attention."

J. Edgar Hoover, F. B. I. director, also has similar views on the subject. Testifying before the Kefauver crime investigating committee, Hoover said: "I have no sympathy with the position of those who constantly are urging against the publication of information on crime. In fact, I would urge the dissemination of more information on crime which puts crime in its proper perspective and reveals it in all its horror and filth, and revolting character. Only in that way can public lethargy be forced into action."

National Magazine Publicizes Michigan

COMING out just as the tourist season was getting under way, the July issue of Holiday magazine gave a big boost to this state with its illustrated feature article on "Michigan."

The article was written by Phil Strong, author of "State Fair" and other books and magazine stories, who apparently traveled across the state last summer.

While Escanaba receives only a bare mention, the article does devote considerable space to Mackinac Island, the Copper Country, Marquette other points in the Upper Peninsula.

It is an interesting article and is accompanied by several attractive pictures. The publicity should be worth thousands of dollars to the Michigan travel industry.

Summer Shower

By Gordon Martin

MARTIN

What's so welcome in the summer as a shower from the skies, which for days have shed their warmth until the earth for moisture cries? What's so lovely and refreshing as the magic of the rain, as it lifts a wilting flower or a rolling field of grain? What's a better kind of music than the raindrops pelting down, in a symphony that echoes in the country and the town?

What's more fun for kids than wading in the river of the street, which but just a little while ago was burning with the heat? Who's so happy as the moppets when they pile the gutters high, building dams to catch the water as it quickly races by? Where's a voice in all the world so filled with wild abandoned joy, like the shouting in the shower of a muddy, splashing world?

What's so bright and reassuring as the chirping of the birds, which beneath their dripping bower sounds so much like human words? What's so refreshed as the cooling air that always gives us heart, and revives the love of living as the fading clouds depart? What is better proof that God in all His glory is our friend, than a lovely summer shower with a rainbow at its end?

Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — The most important Senate debate of the year as far as housewives were concerned was fought behind the closed doors of the banking and currency committee last week. No housewives were present when the solons debated price controls, but this column is able to report who was for and who was against the housewife.

Those who at first voted against the housewife on rolling back prices included two Democrats:

1. Chairman Burnet Maybank of South Carolina, whose family has long been in the cotton brokerage business and who has been especially opposed to price control on cotton. The so-called rollback on beef actually was a rollback on all farm goods including cotton.

2. Joe Frear of Delaware, who owns three dairy and chicken farms, sells fertilizer, farm machinery, and is director of the Baltimore Trust Co., the Farmers Bank of Dover, Del., and the Camden, N. J. Fruit Growers National Bank.

Republicans voting against the housewife were Capehart of Indiana, Bricker of Ohio, Schaeppel of Kansas, Dirksen of Illinois and Ives of New York. Later Ives got swamped by protests from New York, and after dining with GOP Congressman Jack Javits, Republican candidate for mayor of New York, Ives switched his vote and led a drive to protect the housewife.

The original senators voting for the housewife were:

Sparkman of Alabama, Douglas of Illinois, Benton of Connecticut, Moody of Michigan, Fulbright of Arkansas and Robertson of Virginia, all Democrats. Later, however, Robertson switched his vote against the housewife.

HOUSEWIVES' CHIEF ENEMY

Most effective battler against the housewife was the able new Republican senator from Illinois, Everett Dirksen. Dirksen, a Chicago Tribune spokesman and an old friend of Morton Bodfish, a leading brain of the real estate lobby, led a move behind closed doors to wipe out price controls altogether. He was joined by Capehart, Bricker and Schaeppel in an attempt to strike out Title Four, which would have eliminated both wage and price controls.

Dirksen also tried to slip through the 61 per cent rent increase that Ohio's Bricker failed to foist on the committee in an earlier vote. Bricker had wanted to let the landlords choose any year since 1942 and increase their rents 61 per cent above their top figure—despite the fact that he had objected when the Mayflower Hotel raised his rent only 15 per cent. He was talked down behind closed doors and finally offered a 37 per cent compromise.

Yet Dirksen later came back with a proposal to strike out all rent controls, but give the president authority to recontrol rents in defense areas. What the committee almost missed, however, was that Dirksen offered the Bricker 61 per cent formula for recontrolling rents even in defense areas—interesting news to Chicago's over-crowded tenants.

Another camouflaged maneuver was tried by Capehart after Dirksen lost the vote to strike out wage and price controls altogether. Capehart then moved to extend allocation controls for a year, but let price controls expire December 1. This was an obvious attempt to kill price controls in December at a time when Congress would not be in session and would be unable to renew them.

Irony is that this is the same Capehart who kept shouting that Truman was responsible for inflation because he didn't slap on controls last June, immediately after the Korean outbreak.

BACKSTAGE LOBBYING

During the early committee debates, Robertson of Virginia was one of the stanchest champions of the housewives. He not only presided over the banking committee for one day in Maybank's absence, but held the proxy of Arkansas' Fulbright, during which time he argued that the country needed some kind of price control.

Later Robertson suddenly reversed himself and it was reported that his Virginia colleague, Harry Byrd, had been pressuring him. If Robertson had not switched his vote, the housewives would have won.

To offset his switch, Congressman Franklin Roosevelt, Jr., at the suggestion of the White House, telephoned Senator Frear and urged him to vote with the consumers. Young Roosevelt's impassioned plea made an impression on the Delano farmer-senator—though not quite enough.

On the final showdown vote on rollbacks, Frear passed. Apparently he wanted to go part way to please Roosevelt. So he just didn't vote. This left the vote a tie, 6 to 6, and Frear was called upon to cast the deciding vote.

FIRST MEETING—When you have heard about a man for a long time and then meet him there is often a feeling of disappointment.

We had heard about Atty. Albin W. Norblad for a number of years. He would be tall, as befitting a former governor of Oregon; eloquent, since he is an attorney; and blue-eyed, because he is of Swedish extraction.

Mr. Norblad is better than average height, has an amusing and informal manner of speaking, and his blue eyes are alternately searching and amused. He more than met the requirements of our mind's eye picture.

AN EARLIER DAY—Although not a young man, Atty. Norblad is vigorous and carries a wallop in his handshake. He smiles easily and immediately gives you a common ground for conversation.

"I knew John Norton and I was very much interested in the contest over his will," he told me. "The newspaper clippings were sent to me by a friend, and I read every word of it."

We told him we had written every word of it and that the Norton will contest is still in the courts, with the contestants apparently preparing to file for a new trial.

Norblad had lived in Escanaba from 1904 to 1909 and said he knew Norton when he came to Escanaba from Milwaukee and began work for Ivan English, publisher of a weekly newspaper here.

OUT LOUD—Norton later was to establish the Escanaba Morning Press (now the Escanaba Daily Press) and accumulate sufficient property to will to the Escanaba school district for student scholarships—and bring a suit by relatives to break the will.

It was John Norton, said Norblad, who first caused him to become interested in the girl he married. She was Miss Edna Cates, then employed as registrar of probate in the court house, and was the daughter of Lew Cates, owner and editor of The Iron Port, Escanaba's pioneer weekly newspaper.

"John told me the girl in the probate office thought I, as a young attorney in the town, was making an awful racket around the court house," Norblad recalled with a smile. "She was the girl I married, however, and she has been listening to that same racket now for forty-five years!"

Japanese In U. S. Ask Right To Become American Citizens

By ALEXANDER R. GEORGE

AP Newsfeature Writer

WASHINGTON—Japanese in the United States are generally getting a much better deal than ever but the handicaps of racial discrimination are still heavy.

So says Mike Masaoka, ex-GI and national legislative director of the Japanese-American Citizens

League.

Mike and four of his brothers fought with the U. S. 442nd Regimental Combat team, famed Japanese-American outfit, in Italy and France. One brother was killed and the other four were wounded in battle.

MIKE's main goal as a Washington lobbyist is removal of the citizenship ban on alien Japanese and other excluded Pacific peoples. It causes hardship, he says, not only to those who are denied citizenship but also to citizens of their families.

But Mike has been heartened by an amazing decrease in anti-Japanese sentiment in this country. He says it is now easier for them to get jobs and to take fuller part in community life.

He attributes the more friendly attitude to:

1. The fine record made by Japanese who served in the U. S. armed forces during the war.

2. The loyal behavior of alien and citizen Japanese Americans during the war.

3. The increased proportion of Japanese Americans who speak better English and adopt American customs more readily than their fathers and mothers.

4. A growing realization that fair treatment of Asiatic people in this country is a valuable weapon in the struggle against Communism.

On the final showdown vote on rollbacks, Frear passed. Apparently he wanted to go part way to please Roosevelt. So he just didn't vote. This left the vote a tie, 6 to 6, and Frear was called upon to cast the deciding vote.

FOLLOWING the attack on Pearl Harbor, some 110,000 Japanese on the west coast were removed to internment camps in inland states. Mike's widowed mother was one of them.

Many of the interned Japanese lost their property. Others, who had to give up businesses and jobs, had a hard time getting started again.

There are now some 76,000 Japanese and about 3,000 other alien Asians in the United States and its territories. Besides the citizenship ban by the federal government, laws in several western states prohibit them from owning and/or buying a home, or even leasing residential property.

The Japanese American Citizens league reports that some 500 laws passed by one state or another restrict certain occupations to citizens or persons who have filed their first papers. All states require that attorney be citizens.

Citizenship or declaration of intent is a requirement for physicians in 25 states, for teachers in 18 states, for architects in 22 states and for certified public accountants in 43 states. There are similar requirements for barbers in nine states.

In California, where almost of the Japanese on the mainland reside, alien Japanese are not authorized to receive old age pensions," said Mike.

Time Capsule Plant Tells Of Life In 1951

LOS ANGELES — (P) — One years from now someone may want to dig underneath the Pershing Square underground garage and find out what life was like in Los Angeles in 1951.

A "time capsule" is to be planted beneath the three-story subterranean garage. The capsule is three feet high and 12 inches in diameter, and has steel walls a half inch thick. It will have a screw cap like the nose of a bomb that will make it air and water tight. Its weight, 225 pounds.

It hasn't been decided yet what all will go into the time capsule, nor has anyone given much thought to the possibility that a demolition squad may take the capsule out in the Pacific in 2,000 A. D. and dump it, in the mistaken idea it was one of those internal bombs made back in the warring twentieth century.

Let's build subdivisions . . . in which streets are treated for what they properly are, means of access, and the houses turn their backs to the streets, facing inner yards, playgrounds and walks. — Edward J. Meeman, editor, Memphis Press-Scimitar.

Ila Marie Hansen And John Peltier Exchange Vows

A navy and white suit complemented by navy and white accessories and a corsage of white roses, centered with a single red rose, was worn by Miss Ila Marie Hansen, daughter of Mrs. Elsie Hansen, 817 South Sixteenth street, for her wedding Saturday to John Joseph Peltier.

The service was read at 12 o'clock noon in the rectory of St. Ann's church by Father Clifford Nadeau.

Miss Marby Hansen, as her sister's maid of honor, wore a pink sharkskin suit with navy and white accessories and a corsage of pale blue carnations. Thomas Peltier was best man for his brother. They are sons of Mr. and Mrs. John Peltier, 1117 Ludington street.

Mrs. Hansen attended her daughter's wedding in a navy blue sheer with navy and white accessories and yellow and white daisies formed her shoulder bouquet. Mrs. Peltier wore a tan suit with brown accessories. Her corsage was mixed sweetpeas.

The luncheon for the bridal party at the House of Ludington was followed by a reception for 250 guests at the home of the bridegroom's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Manzer Way, 605 South Ninth street. Arranged with the three-tiered wedding cake iced in pink and white and topped by miniature silver wedding bells were flowers and cathedral tapers. Pink and white peonies were effectively used with white satin ribbons and tiny pink rosebuds throughout the home.

All Should Own Parcel Of Land

Forest Plots Best, Babson Believes

BABSON PARK, Mass.—People say that most land is now too high to buy. I do not believe this. The price of new homes seems high—three times what they sold for in the "thirties"—but both good lots and fertile acreage are still comparatively cheap.

Reasons For Buying Land

There are three reasons why I believe everyone should own a little land somewhere:

First, there is only just so much land within a certain area—and there never will be any more. It is easy to make more stocks and bonds. The Government can always print more dollar bills when taxes do not balance the budget. New houses, factories and stores can be built; but the amount of land is fixed. There is today no more land within five miles of your post office than there was thousands of years ago and there will be no more thousand years from now. So, you had better own some that you can use or rent.

My European Friend

I have a European friend who, only ten years ago, was a very rich woman in Poland. She had a beautiful home of sixty rooms, she had 50,000 acres of forest land; she had valuable paintings and other works of art. But when the Russians overran Poland, she could not take away any of these. (She had no stocks or bonds except Polish Governments, which became worthless.)

My friend, however, had some valuable jewelry, including many diamonds. These she concealed on her person and got away. She is now in the United States living humbly on these diamonds and such work as she can get. This friend of mine advises all women to diversify their investments by having some good jewelry. Don't put everything in stock bonds or even in land!

FIRST FLYER

The first man ever to reach Great Britain without coming by water was Louis Bleriot, whose epochal flight across the English Channel in 1909 made him an international hero.

Buy Land Which Carries Itself

When buying land get something which carries itself or "pays its board," so to speak. Vacant lots or unused acreage can quickly "eat their heads off." If you pay $1,000 for a vacant lot, the taxes and interest on what you pay could amount to $1,000 in ten years. This means you must then sell it for $2,000 in order to make a penny. Hence, the importance of getting enough income to pay these carrying charges. These—in case of a building—must also include cost of insurance and maintenance.

The above explains why I like woodland, upon which the taxes are low. The trees will grow enough to balance the taxes and interest cost. Moreover, trees grow seven days a week, including Sundays and holidays! They have no labor unions which limit them to growing only eight hours a day, nor do they practice "birth control" to prevent them from multiplying. Their only enemies are fires and debt. Fires are getting better controlled every year; and you can now get mortgages which can be paid off over 20 years, as you get the money.

Don't Hoard Land

The above is not written for rich investors. It is just as dangerous to hoard land as to hoard anything else. Thus, don't attempt to buy too much land. Too big family holdings might some day be divided and sold very cheaply by the U. S. Government, as has been done by several other Governments. Or, there might be a graduated real estate tax, increasing as the number of acres increase.

In fact, it is wisest not to concentrate on any form of investment. Don't get hooked on anything: railroads, motors, steels, chemicals, department stores or anything else. Proper diversification is the first rule of successful investing. Yes, you can even become "land poor" by having too much land that produces no income in the form of rents, crops or woodland growth.

Pepys Letters Sold At Auction Block

LONDON —(P)— Unpublished letters by the English diarist Samuel Pepys, throwing light on why he disinherited his nephew, brought $546 in a London sale room recently.

London bookseller E. U. Maggs, who bid that top price, carried off the old manuscript letter-book containing 86 letters, all written between 1690 and 1702.

Samuel Jackson, the nephew, was due to inherit the bulk of Pepys' estate under an original will, but in 1703—a few months before his own death—Pepys made a new will reducing the bequest to 40 pounds a year. His complaint: "Samuel Jackson has thought fit to dispose himself in marriage against my positive advice and injunctions and to his own irreparable prejudice and dishonor."

Recipe failures can often be traced to inaccurate measurements, according to Michigan State College home economists. A teacup cannot be relied upon to give you the standard cup used in recipes. A teaspoon or tablespoon for use on the table cannot be depended on to give you the measurements that a standard measuring spoon would give.

Canned chopped olives are handy to have on your kitchen shelf to use for sandwiches or canapes; or add them to a creamed meat or fish dish.

Eight Sheets Taken From Clothes Line

Someone in this city can well qualify for the title of 'meanest person.'

It comes to light that recently some persons stole eight sheets from the clothes line at the Ernst DeHooge residence.

Mrs. DeHooge had left the wash out on the line and when she looked and saw the sheets gone thought some other member of the family had taken them in.

This proved not the case and the linen was apparently gone for good as it was new and bore no identifying laundry marks.

Board Orders Millage Vote

Special Election Set For Sept. 17

A special election to seek approval of a tax of one and one-half mills for Schoolcraft Memorial hospital operation was tentatively set for September 17 by the Schoolcraft county board of supervisors at its meeting yesterday.

The special millage increase, if approved by county voters, would provide an estimated $14,000 annually for five years to cover hospital operating deficits.

The need for additional revenue was explained to the board by A. J. Cayia, chairman of the hospital board of trustees, who said that the annual deficit is estimated at around $15,000 based on the hospital's first year of operation.

The tax, if approved, would be in addition to the 15 mill ceiling now set by the state constitution.

Auto Hits Soo Train At Cooks

Three Escanabans Escape Injury

Three Escanabans persons narrowly escaped injury when the car in which they were riding struck a Soo Line freight train at the Cooks crossing at 1:10 p.m. yesterday.

Driver of the car, Ray S. LeDuc, 38, a disabled World War II veteran, applied his brakes about 75 feet from the crossing when he saw the approaching train. Riding with him were his wife and Florence Griffith.

Other figures made during the survey showed that the spring bowl is 250 feet long and 150 feet wide. Water temperature was recorded at 42 degrees at the surface and 40 degrees at the bottom, 40 feet below the surface.

The locomotive caught the car's right front fender, ripping off the fender and hood and twisting the car parallel with the track. Steel steps on a car behind the locomotive caught the right door of the auto and tore it off. The radiator of the car also was twisted out of position.

Occupants of the auto escaped without a scratch.

LeDuc was traveling west through Cooks, and the train, No. 209, was headed northwest at the crossing, proceeding from Manistique to Gladstone at a speed of about 45 miles per hour.

Manistique state police investigated the accident.

He was born Feb. 19, 1884, in Tuscola county, and was married to the former Alice Morrison, of Manistique, a sister of Mrs. Kenneth P. Van Eyck. He was a member of the Methodist church and the Knights of Pythias lodge. He left Manistique about 16 years ago.

Survivors are his widow, a daughter, Mrs. Marjorie Miesner, a son, Orin, and seven grandchildren, all of Pontiac.

Burial was made in Oakland Hill cemetery.

The ladies of the Episcopal church will be guests.

Flowage From Big Spring Increases

Water flowage from the Big Spring has increased substantially, it is revealed in recent tests made by the U.S. geological survey.

First surveys disclosed a flowage of 3,000 gallons per minute. A survey last fall showed that this had increased to 14,000 gallons per minute, and another late during the spring revealed that the flowage figure had increased to 17,000 gallons.

Figures made by the survey were released this week by George Terry, year-around caretaker at the spring.

Other figures made during the survey showed that the spring bowl is 250 feet long and 150 feet wide. Water temperature was recorded at 42 degrees at the surface and 40 degrees at the bottom, 40 feet below the surface.

The Big Spring is regarded as one of the primary scenic attractions of the middlewest, and each year is visited by thousands of people. Water boils into the spring at the bottom and is drained into Indian Lake by a fair-sized creek.

The locomotive caught the car's right front fender, ripping off the fender and hood and twisting the car parallel with the track. Steel steps on a car behind the locomotive caught the right door of the auto and tore it off. The radiator of the car also was twisted out of position.

This appears to be the big year for American Legion Junior baseball in the Upper Peninsula. Never before has there been so much interest displayed in the program, nor so many teams engaged in competition. Highlighting the entire season, of course, will be the state championships to be held in Iron River early in August.

If ever a U. P. team is going to grab the state bauble, this should be it. For the first time in history the Peninsula representative in the final tournament will be playing in its "home" grounds. And if crowd support means anything, there should be no lack of home team fans to urge on the U. P. entry in the tourney. But just how good are these Lower Michigan clubs which will be making the title tourney trip into the Peninsula in August?

Baseball fans of the Escanaba area will have an excellent opportunity to learn the answer to that question Friday afternoon when Coach Al Ness' Escanaba Cubs take on the Detroit all-star juniors here at the city diamond. Only the best players in the Detroit city leagues were chosen for the barnstorming trip. The Escanaba stop is the final one for the traveling team which will also play at Sault Ste. Marie, L'Anse and Iron Mountain. By the time the boys get here they should be a pretty well coordinated group of players.

One of the largest baseball crowds of the season is anticipated for the Friday afternoon game and we can think of no better way to spend the time and money. The game will not only give fans an opportunity to see a classy downstate team in action, but also an indication of what Upper Peninsula teams can expect in state-wide competition.

The signing of Rusty Hilton to a New York Giant farm club contract the past weekend should be a great incentive to other young ball players in the district. In spite of his lack of great physical stature, Rusty has parlayed a strong arm, hard work and determination into the one great break that all young ball players dream of. It couldn't have happened to a nicer guy and we wish Rusty all the best.

Paper Mill Golfers Play Here Sunday

Paper mill golfers of the Manistique and Escanaba mills played their first of the annual three-match series Sunday at the Escanaba Golf club.

Although rain and high winds interrupted play several times during the day, it didn't dampen the enthusiasm of the golfers, many of whom played additional holes after finishing match play.

Taking part were 40 golfers, 10 from the Manistique mill, who played nine holes in the morning and nine in the afternoon. The program closed with a dinner at the clubhouse and awarding of prizes. Next match will be held at the Indian Lake course at Manistique.

Struck By Golf Club, Michigan Boy Killed

DETROIT—(AP)—An accidental blow from a golf club killed 14-year-old Robert Martindale in a "Caddies' Day" game at Western golf course yesterday.

Other youthful members of the foursome gave this account of the unusual accident:

Kenneth Davis, 18, had just driven off the 11th tee. As he brought his club back for a practice swing, the Martindale boy, after waving at some nearby girls, stepped in front of him. The club struck the boy in the back of the head.

Redford township firemen attempted to revive the boy with an inhalator but he was dead on admittance to a hospital.

Yanks Are Daffy In Exhibition

NEW YORK—(AP)—Everything happens at Ebbets' field, eh?

A jam-packed crowd of 71,289—largest ever to attend an exhibition game—can challenge you on that.

It witnessed something last night that rivals any zany stunt ever pulled in the Brooklyn Dodgers park. It happened in Yankee stadium, of all places.

The culprits? None other than the proud and conservative world champion New York Yankees.

This is the play-by-play account:

The Yankees and Dodgers were deadlocked at 3-3 with New York at bat in the 10th inning. The bases were loaded with nobody out. Pinch-hitter Gene Woodling smashed a long drive into the right field seats.

A grand slam homer? Nope. Just a little single.

Giants May Be Team To Put Crimp In Dodgers

BY JOE REICHLER
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Back in 1934 Bill Terry, then manager of New York's world champion Giants, was asked what he thought of the dreary Brooklyn Dodgers.

"Are they still in the league?" He retorted.

No Names Rally, Tip Transfer 5-4

The No Names snapped out of their scoring slump last night to push across four runs in the last of the seventh inning for a 5-4 win over Clairmont Transiter in the American Softball league.

Don Scott provided the big hit, his third of the evening, with a triple scoring Buck Breaux and Doc Hurn to tie the score at 3-3. Mark Valind then belted a single to right center field to score Scott.

Clairmont jumped off to a three-run lead in the first inning before the No Names settled down. Ike En went all the way for the winners with Kenny Beaudoing catching.

Bill Baker, center fielder, made a number of sensational catches for the Clairmont team. Jack Courneene pitched with Arnold LeBay behind the plate.

Now 17 years later, another Giants manager, Leo Durocher, will attempt to prove that the Dodgers are still in the league.

Pacing the pack by six full games, the Dodgers appear to be in a league all by themselves. They are threatening to make a shambles of the pennant race in the National circuit. The responsibility of halting the Brooklyn runaway rests squarely on the Giants.

The bitter interborough rivals open a vital three-game series tonight at the Polo Grounds. The general feeling is that the Giants must win at least two out of three to convince themselves, along with the rest of the circuit, that the chase is not hopeless. The rivals clash in another three-game set in Brooklyn next week.

Although the Giants won nine and lost four in the west, they failed to gain an inch on the Dodgers. They did, however, climb from fourth to second to clearly mark themselves as Brooklyn's strongest challenger.

There is a side issue to the Dodger-Giant battles. That is the threat of beanball hostilities. The two teams have not met since April 30 when some of the Brooklyn hitters accused pitcher Al Maglie of throwing at them. A brush between Maglie and Jackie Robinson almost erupted into serious trouble.

Maglie knows what to expect.

May Pass Instructions
"I don't know yet what I'm going to do," league president Ford Frick said. "I might issue instructions to managers Durochers and Dresen. I haven't decided yet."

Leo Durocher

Dressen has Preacher Roe (10-0), his unbeaten southpaw, ready for tonight. He'll be opposed by Maglie (11-3).

The Dodgers may be without the services of Gil Hodges, the slugging first baseman who leads the majors with 24 home runs. Hodges injured his left instep in Sunday's doubleheader in Pittsburgh and did not see action last night in Brooklyn's exhibition game against the New York Yankees.

American Race

In contrast to the National, the American league appears set for a blistering pennant race with Chicago's White Sox, New York's Yankees, Cleveland's Indians and Boston's Red Sox all figuring prominently.

Their once-comfortable 4½ cushion deflated to one game, the White Sox hope to regain some lost ground in the next two weeks.

They open against Detroit tonight at home, where they remain for nine games before moving to Cleveland at St. Louis for seven more. They split 16 games on their just-completed eastern swing.

"Don't sell us short" was Manager Grabowski's comment. "We haven't been shut out yet, and when Charley is on, he's tough."

In the afternoon game Lions play Rotary at 3 o'clock at Memorial Field.

Escanaba Council Gets Report On Ettenhofer Death

lice. Mrs. Leonard and her children were to visit relatives there. City Manager Arson told the council that Leonard had requested use of the police patrol car for the trip, and that it had been granted. Use of city cars by department heads to attend such meetings is not unusual here or in other cities, Manager Arson said.

The car and its five occupants left Escanaba at 9 a.m. Sunday and the accident occurred at 11 a.m. on US-2 three miles west of Engadine in Mackinac county.

Others May Recover

Three other persons injured in the accident are expected to recover, according to information received by Manager Arson.

Mrs. Leonard sustained two fractured vertebrae in the neck; her daughter, Terry Elizabeth, 6, has a severe head bruise; and Mrs. David Stone of Pontiac sustained head and chest injuries, but may recover.

All are patients at Schoolcraft Memorial hospital, Manistique.

Funeral services for Michael Allen Leonard were held this afternoon at Manistique and the body was taken to Leonard family home in Port Huron for burial.

Ettenhofer Funeral

Mr. Leonard and Mrs. A. V. Arson are at Manistique, and City Manager Arson went there this afternoon to attend funeral services for the Leonard baby.

Arrangements for the funeral of Mr. and Mrs. Ettenhofer in Escanaba had not been completed today pending word from their son, John, who is with the U.S. Air Force in Korea. The bodies are at the Allo funeral home.

The cost to the city of Escanaba as a result of the accident is estimated at about $2,700. This includes an estimated $1,400 for the replacement of the patrol car, with title held by the city on a rental basis from Northern Motor company; $300 toward the funeral expenses of the chief of police; and $1,000 which the city is obligated to pay under state law to the second injury fund of the state of Michigan, administered by the Workmen's Compensation commission. The city has insurance protection against other possible losses.

Council authorized the city manager to replace the damaged automobile with a new one on a rental basis from Northern Motor company. There will be some salvage to the city from the wrecked car.

Former Girl Friend Paralyzed By Bullet; Detroiter Convicted

DETROIT—(P)—Clarence H. Korte, 25, was convicted yesterday of assault with intent to murder in the paralyzing deer rifle attack on his ex-girl friend.

A circuit court jury took only 15 minutes to find him guilty.

Judge Thomas F. Maher deferred sentence pending a probation report. The maximum is life imprisonment.

The victim, Geraldine Sanford, 20, testified against Korte from a wheel chair. She is paralyzed from the waist down.

Miss Sanford was shot last Sept. 24 as a car in which she was riding with Edward L. Albright, 24, stopped at a traffic light. The shot was fired from a car that pulled alongside.

Police said Korte admitted the shooting shortly after he was captured in Bad Axe.

Bob Murphy Favored Over Jake LaMotta

NEW YORK—(P)—Southpaw Bob Murphy is a 7 to 5 favorite over Jake La Motta for their 12-round bout at Yankee stadium tomorrow night.

The ex-sailor boy is convinced he'll win by a clean kaya, thus becoming the first fighter ever to floor La Motta, the bull of the Bronx.

La Motta, former middleweight champion, says he expects to weigh 174 or 175 for the brawl, the heaviest of his pro career. Murphy probably will hit 176.

The bout will not be telecast or broadcast. It will, instead, be piped into theaters in eight cities.

Drug Firm Sued

DETROIT—(P)—McKesson & Robbins, drug manufacturer, is named in a $50,000 suit filed in federal court by a Bronson, Mich., woman.

Miss Pearl Ludwick charged that she was burned severely by carbon tetrachloride mislabeled castor oil, which she bought in a drugstore.

Sisters Carry On

SANTA MONICA, Calif.—(P)—One of the show world's Andrews sisters, Maxine, is recuperating today from major surgery. Her sisters Patty and LaVonne are carrying on in New York without her, and a spokesman for Maxine says it is the first time they have sung professionally as a duo.

Diplomats Looking For Trickery In Malik Truce Plan

map some sort of joint approach to the Communist nations to establish exactly what they have in mind in the way of cease-fire plan. Britain has diplomatic representation in Peiping and may seek Red China's views directly on behalf of the allies.

Nasrullah Entezam of Iran, president of the U.N. general assembly, gave no indication whether it would be called into session on the Korean issue. He presided today at a routine session honoring President Galo Plaza Lasso of Ecuador. Before the session, Entezam said he had not had a chance to confer with Malik, who was reported ill.

May Ease Tension

While some western diplomats stationed in Moscow adopted a wait and see attitude, others expressed optimism that the time might be near for over-all big power talks which might ease international tension. These observers pointed out that the Malik remarks were obviously well calculated in advance with full Kremlin consultation, and apparently were aimed at bringing about some kind of negotiations to end the Korean war.

LANSING—(P)—Revocation of the Michigan license of the International Workers Order to sell insurance today awaited final action by New York state to put the organization into receivership.

State Insurance Commissioner David A. Forbes has full authority to put the organization out of business at once, Attorney General Frank G. Millard said.

A New York court issued an opinion yesterday finding the organization Communist dominated and indicating a order putting it into receivership would be entered.

Millard said the Michigan action would be based on the apparent disappearance of the organization's Michigan offices and officers.

State Police and assistant attorneys general have been unable to find them in a two-month search.

The organization has 94 lodges and some 8,000 policy holders in the state, Millard reported. He added that the policy holders will be protected by the New York state receivership.

"If there is any hope of securing peace by negotiation, let us have it."

There have been hints in Washington that the U.S. may feel out Moscow through Ambassador Alan G. Kirk.

Some Washington observers still express the feeling that strings will be attached to the Korean peace bid, such as a part for Red China in Japanese treaty negotiations. There were demands from Washington lawmakers that the U.S. be wary of any appeasement.

Big Three Trying To Settle Problem Of Germany's Debts

LONDON—(P)—The Big Three western powers are trying to figure how to settle West Germany's $4,500,000,000 debt burden. The talks will pave the way for a formal conference beginning July 5 in which some 25 nations are slated to take part.

In Britain, France and the United States began the preliminary talks yesterday in an attempt to work out a fair settlement of West Germany's estimated prewar and postwar debts.

Representatives of American, British, French, Dutch, Swedish and Swiss interests sat in on yesterday's meeting.

Jockey Is Killed In Steeplechase Event

NEW YORK—(P)—Harry Harris, a veteran steeplechase jockey, was killed yesterday in a freak accident at Aqueduct race track.

While 19,279 fans looked on, Harris' horse ran into the wing of a hurdle and the jockey's chest was crushed and his heart ruptured.

It was the first death at a New York track in six years. The last fatality was at Belmont in 1945, when Johnny Harrison was the victim.

Miss Lois Lemke has returned to Milwaukee, where she is employed, after visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Lemke, 1813 Second Avenue south.

Mother Critically Ill—Mrs. John A. Lemmer has returned to Appleton, Wis., called by the critical condition of her mother, Mrs. Ellen Cripps. Mrs. Cripps, who is 94 years old, has been in failing health the past two years.

Argentina Willing To Swap Some Of Her New Atomic Secrets

BUENOS AIRES—(P)—Argentina might be willing to swap some of her new atom secrets if she could get the right raw materials in return, says the nation's top atom scientist, Ronald Richter.

If she can make a good deal," Richter told newsmen, Argentina might sell her nuclear secrets outright, or trade them for machinery and raw materials she needs for atomic industrial development.

The Austrian-born Richter, showed newsmen through the Huemul atomic plant 850 miles south of Buenos Aires. He said his new experiment, which will be ready in six or eight months, "will amaze the world" and might pave the way for use of atomic energy in iron smelters and electric powerplants.

New Mexico Timber Destroyed By Fire

TRUTH OR CONSEQUENCES, N.M.—(P)—More than 30,000 acres of timber lay in ashes today as fire in the Gila national forest raged uncontrolled for the fifth day. At least 1,200 men were on the fire lines attempting to draw them tight around the 60 to 70 mile front.

Wedding All Free

OSSOBO—(P)—Any couple willing to contribute to Owosso's Fourth of July celebration by getting married in a public ceremony wouldn't have to live on love only—at least for a while. Mayor Charles Moore said he would buy the license, pay the preacher and toss in $25 plus the proceeds from the passing of a hat.

Great Britain And Red China Dicker On Peace Terms

rent talks had not reached top levels. They resulted from a feeling transmitted from Peiping to New Delhi and delivered to the British by the Indian ambassador to Great Britain.

While all parties deny that any official discussions are going on, it is understood that the Chinese have let it be known that they would be willing to talk truce terms on the basis of Russia's June 10 note. On that date, U.S. Ambassador Alan G. Kirk cancelled a Sunday excursion and hurried to the Soviet Foreign Ministry in Moscow to receive a 19-page communication.

Communists Weakening

That note charged that the U.S. deliberately excluded Russia and Red China from Japanese treaty negotiations. The Russians insisted that not only their country but also Communist-dominated Mongolia and North Korea be given a voice in all future Japanese deliberations. They called for a general peace conference to be held in July or August.

There is little new on the surface in the latest "peace" move. But well-informed Western diplomats believe the Peiping Chinese are weakening. They continue to hold out for membership in the United Nations prior to negotiations for a "full peace" in Korea. But Mao, it is understood, would now consider an acceptance by the West of Russia's June 10 note as at least a basis for cease-fire negotiations.

My diplomatic informant put it this way: "Having failed to gain admission to the UN through the front door, Mao Tse-tung may yet attempt to sneak in through the back door."

Diplomats think it unlikely the U.S. would agree to Red China's latest terms, although President Truman is reportedly ambitious to terminate the Korean war as quickly as possible.

Channels Kept Open

But the President, like the British, is keeping diplomatic channels open. Mr. Truman recently told a press conference in Washington that he was unaware of any "official" peace proposals impending in the Korean war. This was interpreted by West European diplomats to mean that he was aware of "unofficial" proposals.

The British are anxious to keep a bridge open between Red China and the West. Communist China's participation in the Japanese treaty negotiations would appear the small but loud group of leftists in the British Labor Party, led by die-hard Marxist Aneurin Bevan.
